

Vikings: Were the Vikings always victorious and vicious?

WALT: Understand reasons for conflicting historical accounts

What was a raid like?

- I can make reasonable predictions using sources of information
- I can use a range of sources to ask and answer questions about the past
- I can explain the terms invade, raid and settle
- I can discuss the impact of significant events.
- I can identify the cause and effect of the Lindisfarne raid

vicious?

WALT: discuss places in their own locality

What was life like for a Viking?

- I can make reasonable predictions using sources of information.
- I can ask and answer historically valid questions

WALT: draw our own conclusions of significant people
If you were King, would you have fought the Vikings? (ipads)

- I can identify key facts about Anglo-Saxon Kings.
- I can compare the similarities and differences of the Kings
- I understand the significance of King Alfred

Viking Museum:

DT: Create a prototype and an exploded diagram of a design.

What makes a museum great?

- I can use a range of materials and tools
- I can evaluate and use the ideas of others
- I can create a secure and stable structure
- I can work with others

WALT: Identify links between events and changes; giving reasons for them and explaining the result.

Who were the Vikings and where did they come from?

- I can recall and order events on a timeline.
- I can demonstrate a chronological knowledge of British history.
- I can ask and answer historically valid questions
- I can make reasonable predictions using sources of information.

WALT: discuss the impact of significant events

Would you pay a burglar to go away?

- I understand the significance of King Ethelred and the introduction of Danegeld
- I can identify similarities and differences in laws today
- I can share opinions, justified with reasoning

WALT: understand what life was like during the Anglo Saxon and Viking period

Were the Vikings raiders or traders?

- I can collect and gather information
- I can make reasonable predictions using sources of information.